

FARNHAM & BOURNE CHORAL SOCIETY

Farnham's tradition of making and enjoying music goes back a long way. In 1922 The Farnham and Bourne Music Club was formed to provide opportunities to see and hear professional musicians perform.

An early offshoot of the Club was the Farnham & Bourne Choral Society, a mixed choir, which gave its first concert in 1925 at the church of St Thomas-on-The Bourne.

More than eighty years later the choir continues to play a major part in Farnham's varied musical culture.

Come and sing with us

If you enjoy singing and listening to a wide variety of classical choral works why not join us for the coming season?

We warmly welcome new members of all voice parts and invite you to come along to any Wednesday rehearsal to discover how enjoyable singing choral music can be. (Discounted membership for under-25s)

We simply ask that members demonstrate the commitment and enthusiasm required to achieve a performance standard worthy of the consistently high quality soloists and musicians we engage.

Become a Patron

The interest and financial support of our Patrons is highly valued. In return for an annual subscription we offer free tickets to our main concerts and the opportunity to become involved in social activities. If you would like to know more please call our Patrons Secretary on 01252 737004.
